

Why Securitor?

Big enough to provide confidence, small enough to care

PAM Financial Advisors is authorised through SECURITOR Financial Group Ltd which gives us access to over 400 individual approved investment, superannuation and insurance products.

PAM Financial Advisors chose Securitor from a number of other dealer groups as we believe that they offer the best possible solutions for our clients.

Securitor was established in 1986 and has steadily grown to become one of Australia's largest financial planning groups with a reputation for innovation and technical excellence. Securitor is owned by Westpac Banking Corporation (Westpac).

Today, more than 400 trusted financial advisers from around Australia operate under Securitor's Financial Services Licence. They manage in excess of $15 billion for more than 70,000 clients, making Securitor one of the largest financial planning licensee's in Australia.

Securitor and Westpac provide strong support with the aim of ensuring you receive advice that's of a high quality.

Securitor ensures we are backed by excellent technical services experts, compliance professionals, paraplanners, financial planning software, administration platforms and more. All these resources ensure we can provide you with the most appropriate and effective financial advice for your individual needs.
